

Fancy Little Paws Contract

The following is a contract between _____ (breeder) and _____ and/or _____ (owners)
in regards to the following puppy:

Breed _____

Gender _____

Birth date _____

Color _____

The breeder agrees to the following: The breeder covers all genetic defects, which are a result of the puppies breeding. This does not cover illnesses or accidents that are not genetic. Medical treatment must be medically necessary. Breeder does not cover optional services.

Umbilical hernias are covered under this contract. The breeder will pay for repair of umbilical hernia's however, this will only be done at the time of spay/neuter while the puppy is already under general anesthesia. The owners are responsible for all costs associated with the spay/neuter. Puppies are covered against contagious illness for the first 7 days after leaving the breeder. In the event the puppies need medical coverage through this contact, a mutually agreed upon vet must be chosen to provide care.

For any and all above cases cost paid by the breeder is limited to the purchase price of the puppy, which is $ _____. $ _____ is the maximum payable amount. Cost paid by the Breeder shall not exceed actual veterinary fees. Optional services that are not medically necessary are not covered under this contract. The breeder agrees that if for medical reasons, genetic defect or genetic health problems that owners would prefer to return the puppy, a replacement puppy will be offered to them as soon as a litter of the same breed is available. The puppy covered in this contract must be returned to the breeder before a replacement puppy will be given.

The owners agree to the following: The owners will continue medical care and shots for the puppy listed above. This includes finishing puppy shots. A series of three shots must be completed four weeks apart including a rabies vaccine with the last set of shots. Once a year check ups and yearly shots must also be maintained.

Owners void this contract if they fail to maintain their shots and check ups. The owners further agree that they will never sell the puppies, give them away, or place them in a shelter or rescue group. If the owners need to re-home the puppies, this may be done with the breeder's agreement. A new contract must be signed at that time between the breeder and the second owners. If no such agreement is made the puppy must be returned to the breeder regardless of age.

Owners agree to provide an indoor home. Puppies may not be housed outside.
